

DFW Multimedia Web Depositions

Participation Levels	Description	Requirements	Application
Observer Seats*	An Observer is an individual at a remote location who only observes the web deposition. The Observer does not participate in the deposition but may chat privately with other participating Observers, Level I and Level II participants.	Computer with a broadband connection to the web	Experts, Legal Assistants Associate Counsel, Insurance Adjusters, Clients
Participant Seat* (Level I)	A remote Participant in the proceeding. Level I participants are active in the deposition and participate by video and/or audio connection. The Level I Participant may chat privately with other participating Observers, Level I and Level II participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Computer with a broadband connection. • Integrated PC camera (suggested) • Microphone connection (Headset with microphone recommended but not necessary.) 	Attorney
Participant Seat* (Level II)	A remote Participant in the proceeding. Level II participants are active in the deposition and participate by video and audio connection. The Level II Participant may chat privately with other participating Observers, Level I and Level II participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Broadband connection • DFW Video to provide camera and equipment at Participant's location 	Remote Witness, Attorney, Presenter

* Arrangements for Observers, Level I and Level II participants must be made prior to the beginning of the proceeding. A secure link to the deposition will be provided.

Basic Videotaped Deposition

Noticing
Attorney

Counsel
Present

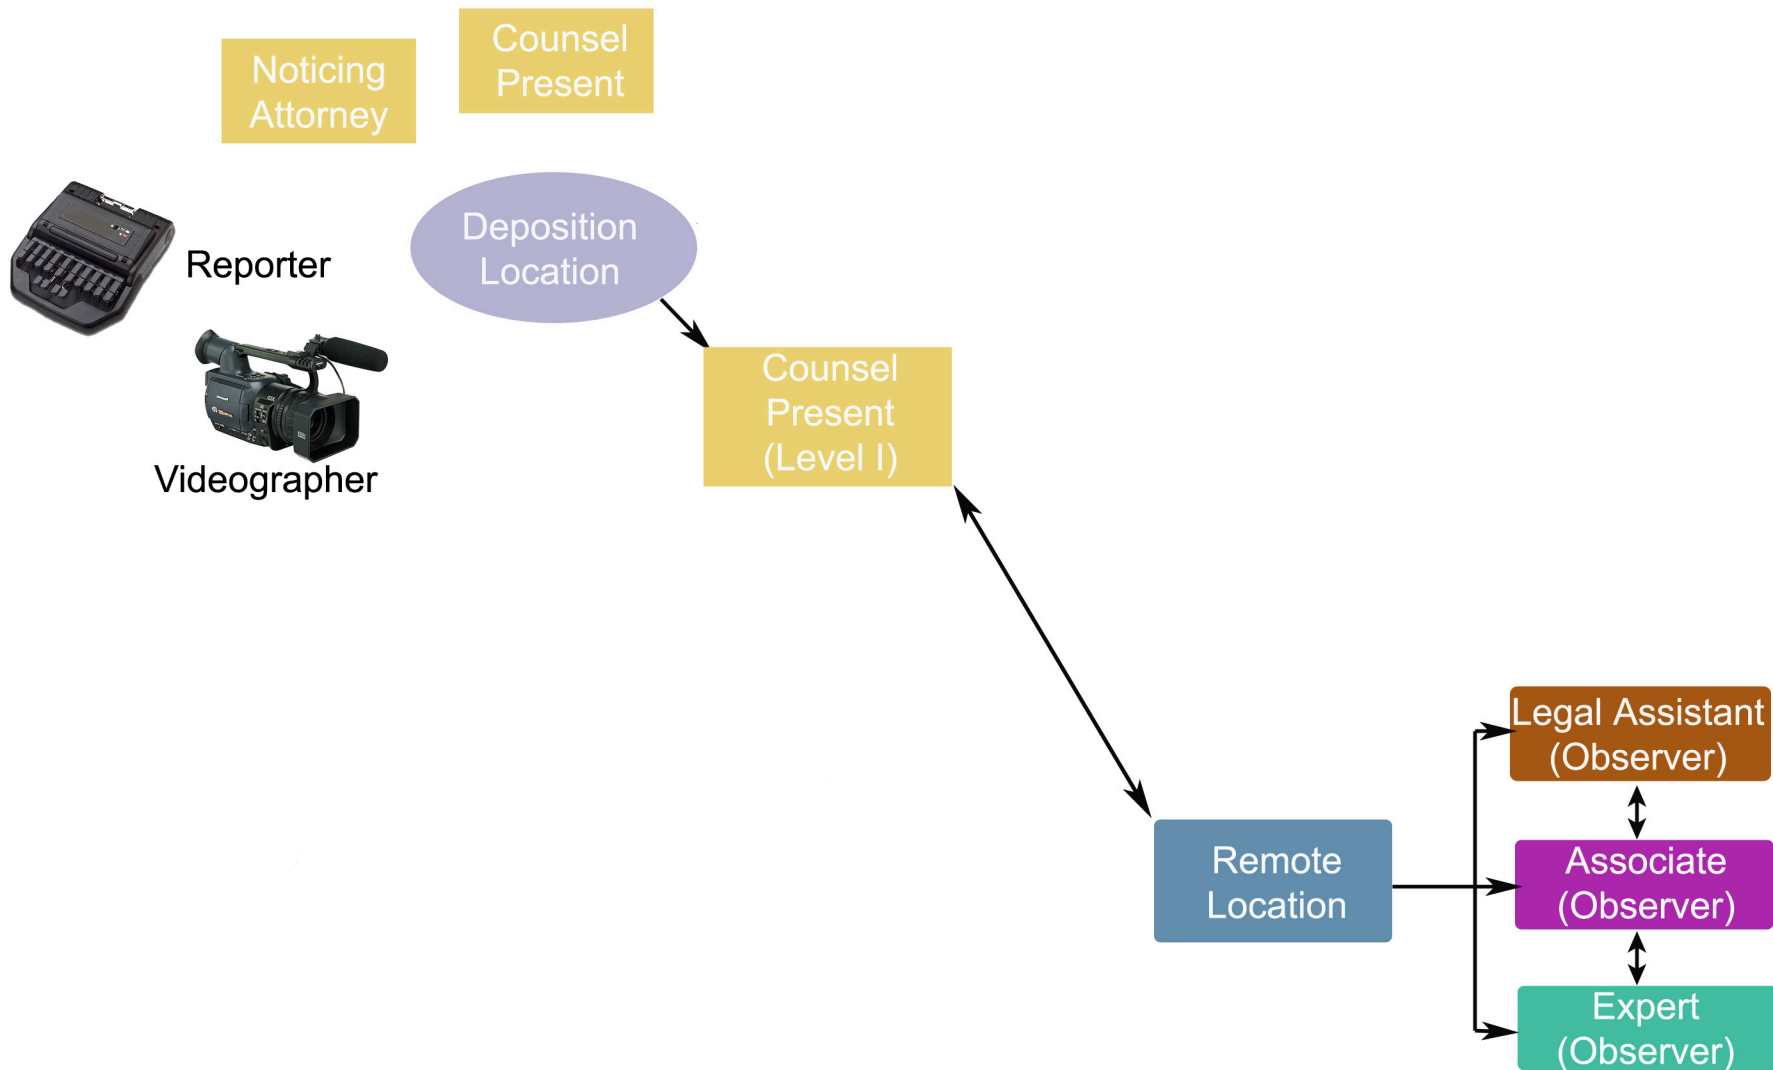

Reporter

Deposition
Location

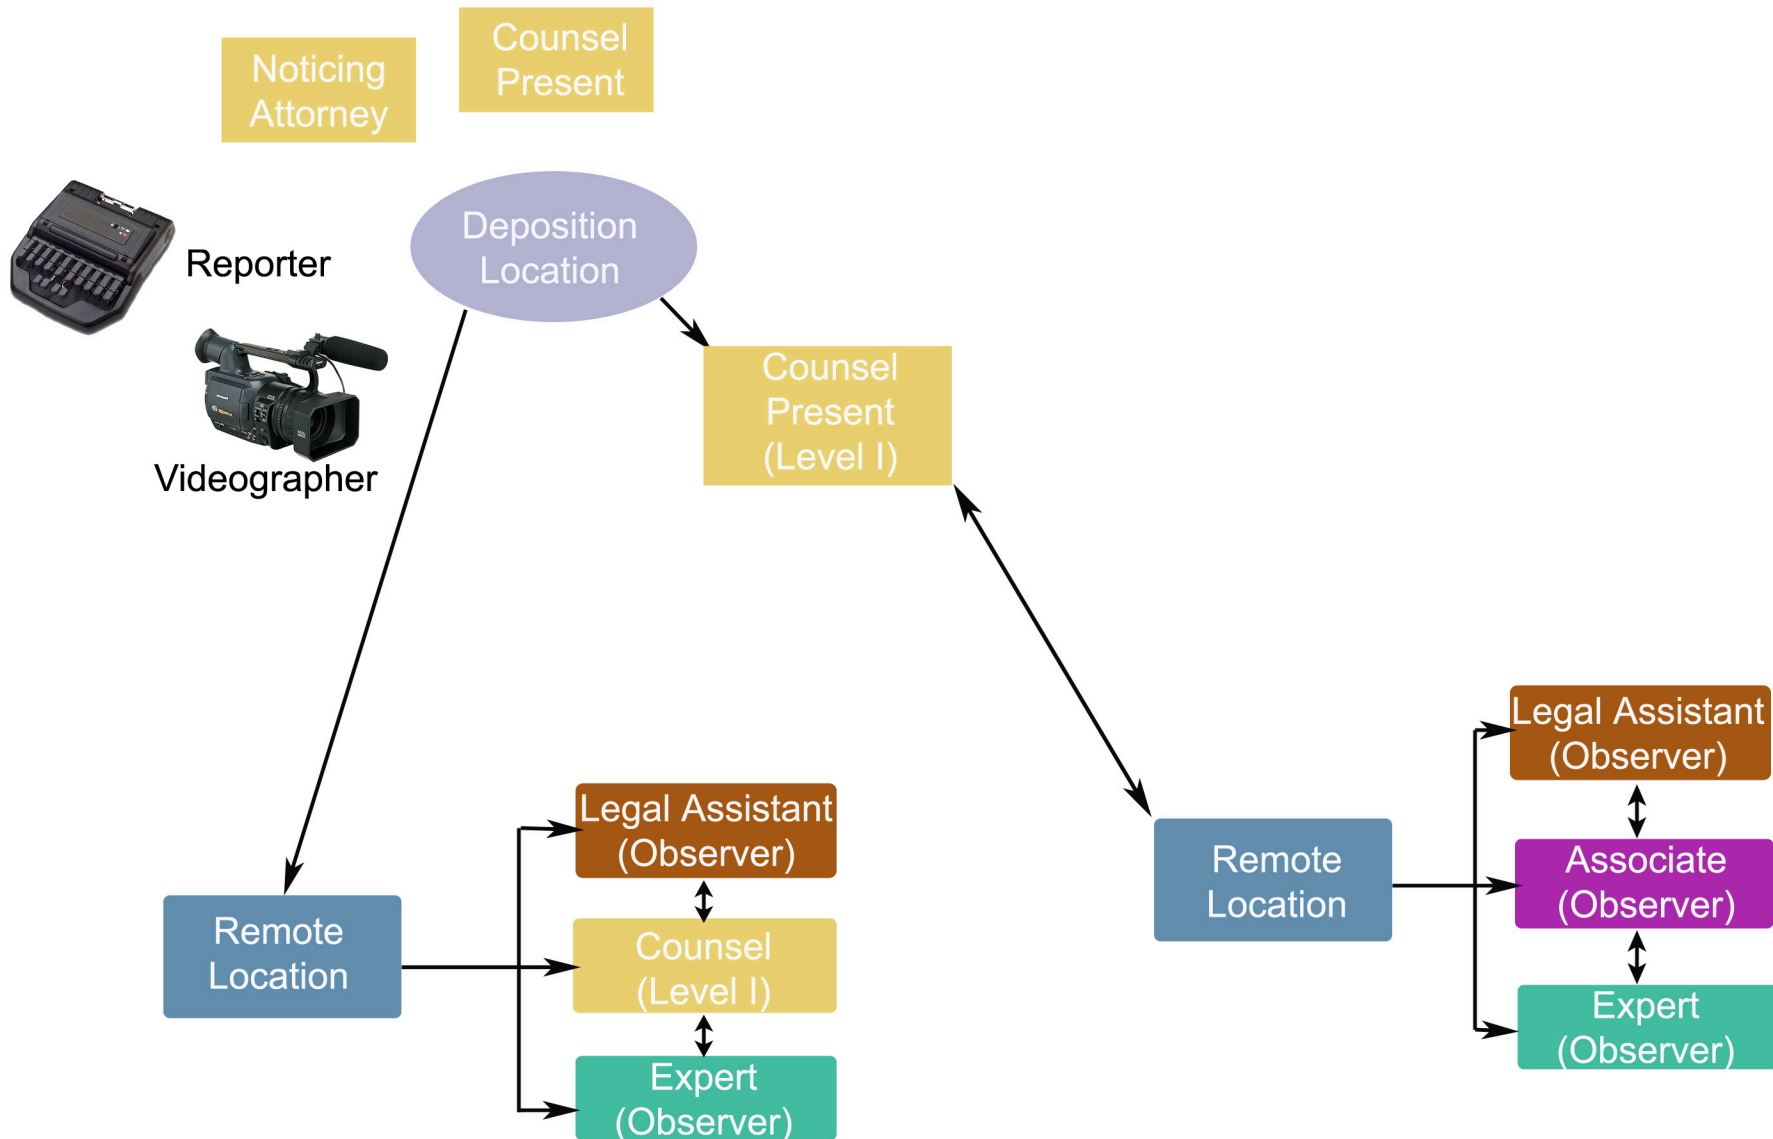

Videographer

Participation at remote location via audio and personal webcam (optional)

Participation at remote location with other remote observers

Participation at remote location via audio/video connection

